Ideally situated near the Champs Elysées and the Arc de Triomphe, just a few minutes from the Palais des Congrès, the BEST WESTERN PREMIER Hotel Regent's Garden proudly bears witness to its illustrious past through a stylish interior with large windows, cornices and Napoleonic medallions, and shows itself as an equally elegant contemporary player through design touches in certain pieces of furniture, combined with the subtle combination of materials and fabrics. Set in a quarter that is both commercial and residential, this former private mansion house built by Napoleon the third, located in rue Pierre Demours, was fully renovated in 2008 and is now non-smoking throughout.

BEST WESTERN STAR CHAMPS ELYSEES - 3

18 Rue de l'Arc de Triomphe - 75017 PARIS

Rue de l'Arc de Triomphe: the very name inspires the imagination, evoking the excitement and prestige of the Champs Élysées and the Place de l'Étoile... Who would guess that the Best Western Star Champs Élysées, located just a couple of steps away, is in fact a veritable oasis of tranquillity hidden away from the bustle of the main thoroughfares of the quartier.

In a stone building built at the end of the XIX century in the purest Haussmannian tradition, what was previously just a simple family guest house has become, over the course of the 1970s, an international hotel. Since 2007, the Best Western Star Champs Élysées has been a member of the Best Western Group. Run by Pierre Salles since 2001, the hotel was extensively renovated between 2007 and 2010 under the supervision of the architect Anne Bruguère-Peyroux. The Best Western Star Champs Élysées, which enjoys Ecolabel status, is fully air-conditioned and completely non-smoking; it has sixty-two rooms, one of which is a suite.
